The Einhell cordless rotating sander TE-RS 18 Li - Solo provides the user with independent flexibility for work in the home, garage & workshop. Speed electronics enables the tool to be adjusted to the material/application on different surfaces. Finest finish and a high sanding performance can be achieved thanks to the eccentric concept. For safe & comfortable operation there is a soft grip. A hook and loop fastening ensures that the abrasive paper is held securely. A dust extractor is included to keep the work area dust-free, an external dust extractor can also be connected. Complete with one piece of abrasive paper (P80). It is a member of the Power X-Change series. The battery and charger are available separately.
