The Einhell IPH 1500 electric terrace heater provides cozy radiant heat just where you want it. Thanks to the robust aluminium housing and provision for wall-mounting, it is perfect for outdoor use - on the terrace or balcony or sitting out in the garden. This is ensured by design-compliance with IP protection class IP 55. The high-quality, efficient halogen heating element emits the desired heat straight away upon switching on. The Einhell terrace heater has two heat settings (750 / 1500 W) for adjusting it to requirements. For user-friendly operation there is a timer and remote control.
