The Original Einhell E-Case Spirit Level Holder is part of the modular E-Case system and adds a dedicated mount for spirit levels to the tool cases. It is specifically designed for the SEALED E-Case L, hooking onto the side rail at the top and locking into a fixture at the bottom for secure fastening. Suitable for spirit levels with a minimum length of 32 cm, it supports loads of up to 2 kg. Tool-free mounting with a snap lock allows the holder to be quickly attached or removed at any time. Even when mounted, the E-Case remains fully usable. The required side rail is available separately.
