In connection with a router, the sturdy, small and handy router-table suits excellently for milling of grooves, angles and all kind of cut-outs. With its plenty of clever details, e.g. easy adjustable parallel stop, additional table-broadening and variable adjustable pressing relief, it allows secure, fast and accurate operations.

With the router you can mill in woods, lightweight materials and plastics, slots, edges, profiles and long holes. The drills can be simply changed by integrated spindle lock. With the additional speed regulation you can adapt the rotational frequency of the router to the material you are working with.
