The band saw TC-SB 200 is the compact and versatile stationary sawing tool in bench saw format for each ambitious do-it-yourself enthusiast, in order to execute fast and precise mitre and longitudinal cuts as well as curved cuts in wood, plastic and similar materials. The sturdy 250 Watt engine caters for the drive, which saws also hard woods up to a thickness of 80mm without effort. The easy to operate adjustment possibilities, such as the ball-bearing saw band guide, the robust parallel guide stop and the saw bench infinitely tiltable from -4° to 46° make it possible to execute all sawing operations fast and cleanly. Owing to the dust suction connection and the sliding stick, optimal cleanliness and safety is ensured at any time.
