The Original Einhell E-Case worktop is a member of the modular E-Case system and converts stacked tool cases into a mobile work bench. The sturdy worktop (50 x 36 x 4,2 cm) offers a large smooth bamboo working space (45 x 27 cm) suitable for various tasks. The built-in locking system can be used to connect the worktop to the E-Case cases. Small parts like screws, screwdrivers or bits can be stored and organised in storage compartments, slots and a sorting box holder built into the plastic frame (boxes available separately). The worktop can be transported easily thanks to the integrated carrying handle.
